

Objective A resourceful and resilient new grad who is prepared for any opportunity or challenge. Ready to leverage knowledge and skills for professional roles in the tech field.

- Skills & Abilities
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams
 - Adaptable to diverse, fast-paced environments
 - Proficient in written and verbal communication
 - Ability to prioritize multiple projects
 - Willingness to learn new tools to enhance business systems
 - Computer Languages: HTML, CSS, JS, Java, R, SQL, PL-SQL
 - Integrated Development Environments: MS VS, NetBeans, etc.
 - Cloud Data Services: Amazon Web Services
 - Database Management Systems: Oracle, MySQL
 - System Analysis and Design: Agile Methodology

Experience Department of Finance Intern, City of Little Rock

June 2015 – August 2015

- Tasked with data entry to get checks and other monetary transactions verified, documented, and organized. Gained experience in an office setting, customer-service, and time-management.

Education University of Arkansas at Little Rock – Little Rock, Arkansas – Bachelor of Science in Information Science, Associate of Science in Computer Programming

FALL 2018 – SPRING 2021

Overall GPA: 3.45, Dean's & Chancellor's List, Scholarship Recipient

Relevant Coursework: Programming, Tech Writing, Database Concepts, System Analysis and Design

- Problem-solved using object-oriented programming concepts
- Knowledge of database design and management systems
- Learned how to communicate technical documentation
- Learned fundamentals of software project management

Activities

- Active member in National Society of Black Engineers
- Active member in Society of Women Engineers
- Participant in various city-wide cleanup events
- Donating goods to food drives and rehabilitation centers
- Beginner experience in video editing and blog writing